[redacted] This office has the responsibility of liaison with the members of the unit and of making certain that they have appropriate equipment to do their work. The unit requires the following item in order to prepare the necessary accounts required for their records:

Calculating Machine - Electric - 10 Column Listing
Remington Rand 7-7420-005-1228
Price: $471.00

2. Since the unit is already functioning and the preparation of returns and accounts must meet statutory deadlines, it would be appreciated if procurement of this item be given the most expeditious handling.

3. We have been informed by the Deputy Comptroller that funds are available for the purchase.

4. If there is any further information we can provide please advise us.
